(D) Body of the policy

(1) NEOMED's department of public safety will prepare a report to comply with the Clery Act. The report will contain information on the reportable crimes specified herein and any crimes that may be designated by amendment to the Clery Act. The full text of this report can be located on our website. This report will be prepared in cooperation with the NEOMED police department and local law enforcement agencies that provide mutual aid to the NEOMED police department or law enforcement to the property surrounding the NEOMED campus.

(2) Campus crime, arrest, and referral statistics include those reported to the department of public safety, designated campus officials, and local law enforcement agencies.

(3) Each year, students, faculty, and staff will be notified of the reportable crimes that occurred on campus for the past reporting year. This information will also be accessible through the university website. A paper copy of the report may also be obtained from the department of public safety by calling 330.325.6492 or emailing a request to police@neomed.edu.
