

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3349-10-65 Emergency or crime reporting rule.

Effective: August 3, 2025

(A) Purpose

To establish a rule for the reporting of a crime, emergency or public safety concern or incident while on the Rootstown campus.

(B) Scope

Covers all persons in the Rootstown campus, in any on campus residences and on all public property adjacent to and immediately accessible from the Rootstown campus and any non-campus university owned buildings or property.

(C) Definitions

(1) Consult university rule no. 3349-7-01.

(2) "Emergency" is a sudden, generally unexpected, occurrence or set of circumstances demanding immediate attention.

(3) "Rootstown campus" includes all of the real property, buildings and equipment owned by or for the benefit of the university in Rootstown Township, Portage county, Ohio.

(4) "911" means the telephone number used to call for police, fire or ambulance emergency services.

(5) "Northeast Ohio Medical University Police Department" or "NPD" refers to a commissioned law enforcement officers employed by the university and having jurisdiction on university owned property.

(6) "Security" is the physical space reserved for contracted security officers and their respective function. It is located in room A-90.

(D) Rule statement

(1) The university encourages the accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to the NPD, or other appropriate law enforcement agency.

(2) To report an emergency, call 911. Any suspicious persons or non-emergent activities should be reported to the NPD on the non-emergency line of 330-325-5911.

(3) Under the Revised Code, all persons who know that a felony has been or is being committed are required to report such information to law enforcement authorities. If it is an emergency, the person should call 911 immediately to report such information. The university encourages the victim of or witness to any crime to promptly report the incident to NPD.

(4) Any crimes on the campus reported to NPD will be included in the annual crime statistics, and will be used to provide timely warning notices if required.

(5) Ohio's public records law, contained in paragraph 149.43 of the Revised Code does not permit the university to promise confidentiality to those who report crimes unless such protection is otherwise permitted by law.
