

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3359-20-04.2 Faculty and special organizations.

Effective: January 31, 2015

(A) Faculty organizations concerned with university policy and welfare.

(1) Organizations with voluntary membership.

The university of Akron chapter of the Ohio education association - national education association has been active on campus since 1972. The university of Akron chapter of the American Association of University Professors has been active on campus since 1932.

(2) Faculty senate committees with elected membership.

(a) The faculty rights and responsibilities committee shall concern itself with grievance matters relating to faculty assessment or evaluation, appointment, retention, tenure, and promotion. This committee shall be composed of one member from the tenured faculty of each degree granting college, elected by its full-time faculty and one full-time tenured faculty member from the university libraries, elected by its full-time faculty.

(b) The university well-being committee shall concern itself with matters relating to health and well-being, such as fringe benefits, insurance, pensions and leaves. The committee shall be composed of one member of the full-time faculty from each of the degree granting colleges, elected by its full-time faculty and one full-time faculty member from the university libraries, elected by its full-time faculty, one member of the contract professionals, elected by their members; one member from the part-time faculty currently employed by the university elected by members of the part-time faculty.

(B) Special organizations concerned with university growth and development include:

(1) The university of Akron foundation, established in 1966, is a nonprofit charitable foundation. Its purpose is to help develop and increase the resources of the university by encouraging gifts and bequests of money or property and to receive, hold, and administer such gifts and bequests exclusively for the benefit of the university.

(2) The partners in excellence is a group of industries and businesses contributing to the financial support of the university.

(3) The John R. Buchtel society is an organization which recognizes individuals who make contributions to the university through the foundation. All levels of gifts are recognized through seven gift clubs: 1870 benefactors club, president's club, ten thousand dollars annually, fifty thousand dollars lifetime contribution, or one hundred thousand dollars deferred; lamplighters club; dean's club, century club and loyalty club. Gifts may be restricted for a specific purpose or may be given as unrestricted.

3359-20-04.2

2

- (4) Zip athletic club is a resource development arm of the university of Akron, department of athletics, the purpose of which is to secure financial resources to support the entire athletic program.
- (5) E.J. Thomas performing arts enrichment fund is dedicated to the encouragement of support of the performing arts and the building where they can best be enjoyed, the E.J. Thomas performing arts hall.
- (6) The friends of the university library is a group of interested alumni and friends working to improve the holdings and services of the university libraries.
- (7) The friends of Hower house are public spirited citizens, clubs, and organizations who, through their dues and efforts, are helping to assure the restoration and preservation of the university's Hower house at 60 Fir Hill.
- (8) Varsity 'A.' an athletic affiliation group of individuals who earned athletic letters in varsity sports participation at the university.