

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3745-279-32 Used oil aggregation points owned by the generator.

Effective: October 20, 1998

---

(A) Applicability. This rule applies to owners or operators of all used oil aggregation points. A used oil aggregation point is any site or facility that accepts, aggregates, and/or stores used oil collected only from other used oil generation sites owned or operated by the owner or operator of the aggregation point, from which used oil is transported to the aggregation point in shipments of no more than fifty-five gallons under the provisions of paragraph (B) of rule 3745-279-24 of the Administrative Code. Used oil aggregation points may also accept used oil from household do-it-yourselfers.

(B) Used oil aggregation point requirements. Owners or operators of all used oil aggregation points shall comply with the generator standards in rules 3745-279-20 to 3745-279-24 of the Administrative Code.
