

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3746-5-01 Parties to an appeal.

Effective: May 30, 2014

(A) Any person who was a party to a proceeding in which the resulting action is appealable to the environmental review appeals commission, or who was aggrieved or adversely affected by an action that was not preceded by a proposed action, may appeal to the commission for an order vacating or modifying the action.

(B) The environmental review appeals commission has exclusive original jurisdiction over any matter that may be brought before it.
