

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3750-10-01 Establishment of state emergency response commission, executive committee and committees.

Effective: April 1, 2026

- (A) The commission will be created pursuant to section 3750.02 of the Revised Code. The commission consists of members pursuant to division (A) of section 3750.02 of the Revised Code. The director of the environmental protection agency and the director of public safety or the director's designees serve as co-chairpersons of the commission.
- (1) The initial appointments made by the governor to the commission provides five members with a term of two years and five members with a term of one year; thereafter terms of office of the appointed members of the commission are for two years with each term ending on the same day of the same month as did the preceding term. Each member holds office from the date of appointment until the end of the appointed term. A member continues in office subsequent to the expiration date of the term until a successor takes office or until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. Members of the commission may be reappointed.
 - (2) Vacancies are filled in the same manner provided for original appointments. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which the predecessor was appointed holds office for the remainder of that term.
 - (3) The commission may at any time by a vote of two-thirds of all the members remove any appointed member of the commission for misfeasance, nonfeasance or malfeasance.
 - (4) Except for purposes of Chapters 102. and 2921. and sections 9.86 and 109.36 to 109.366 of the Revised Code, serving as appointed members of the commission does not constitute holding a public office or position of employment under the laws of this state and does not constitute grounds for removal of public officers or employees from the offices or positions of employment.
- (B) The commission establishes an executive committee consisting of members in accordance with division (B)(9) of section 3750.02 of the Revised Code. The commission delegates to the executive committee the performance of such of the commission's duties and powers under Chapter 3750. of the Revised Code as are required or authorized to be so delegated under division (B)(9) of section 3750.02 of the Revised Code. The directors of the environmental protection agency and public safety or the directors' designees serve as the co-chairs of the executive committee.
- (C) Through resolution, the commission establishes such committees as the commission determines necessary or convenient from time to time to implement and administer Chapter 3750. of the Revised Code. The committees may include such standing and temporary committees as necessary. Any committee may be dissolved through the adoption of a resolution by the commission.
