

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3750-85-03 Decision by local emergency planning committee.

Effective: April 1, 2026

- (A) If, in the opinion of the local emergency planning committee, the ordinance, resolution, rule or requirement of the political subdivision meets the criteria for issuance of a variance established in rule 3750-85-02 of the Administrative Code and does not conflict with any resolution, rule, or requirement adopted by the committee, the committee shall, within one hundred twenty days of the date on which the complete application for a variance was received from a political subdivision, meet to pass a resolution approving the request for the issuance of the variance. The committee shall send a copy of the resolution, the political subdivision's variance application, and the ordinance, resolution, rule, or requirement to the commission within sixty days of passage of the resolution approving issuance of the political subdivision's application.
- (B) The shall not approve issuance of a variance unless at least sixty per cent of the voting members of the committee vote to approve the variance.
- (C) The commission shall review the resolution, the political subdivision's variance application, and the ordinance, resolution, rule, or requirement in accordance with Chapter 3750-80 of the Administrative Code.
