

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3769-15-17 Engagement passed to new owner.

Effective: January 8, 2026

- (A) When a horse is sold, its engagements pass to the new owner unless otherwise specified in the terms of the sale. When a horse is claimed out of a claiming or optional claiming race, its engagements pass to the claimant. In no case, however, shall the engagements pass with the horse to a person not in good standing.

 - (B) Except in cases of horses claimed out of claiming races or public auction, no sale of a horse by private agreement will be recognized if such sale is not evidenced by a bill of sale that is notarized by the seller.
