

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3769-2-01 The commission, right to search.

Effective: June 15, 2025

(A) Members of the commission and its representatives have the right of full and complete entry to any and all parts of the grounds and mutual plants of permit holders.

(B) The Ohio state racing commission, its representatives, the state steward or judge investigating for violations of law or of the rules and regulations of the commission, have the authority to permit persons authorized by them to search certain persons and areas as follows:

(1) All persons licensed by the commission or persons engaged in activities that need a license by the commission when such persons are within the racetrack premises or those who have gained access by special permission;

(2) Supply salespersons licensed by the commission when they are within the racetrack premises;

(3) Stables, rooms, vehicles and any other place within the racetrack premises used by those persons who may be searched pursuant to this rule;

(4) Stables, rooms, and vehicles used or maintained by persons licensed by the commission, and which are located in areas outside of the racetrack premises where horses eligible to race at the race meeting are stabled.

(C) If a person refuses to consent to such searches as described above, they will be automatically suspended by the stewards and referred to the commission who may revoke the licensee's Ohio state racing commission license and rule the licensee off all Ohio tracks for the remainder of the calendar year and/or assess any other penalty provided for in rule 3769-2-99 of the Administrative Code.
