

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3772-23-01 Establishment of involuntary exclusion list.

Effective: January 1, 2017

(A) The involuntary exclusion list shall consist of the names and information of those individuals who meet the criteria under Chapter 3772. of the Revised Code and this chapter and have been placed on the list by the commission.

(B) An individual on the involuntary exclusion list is prohibited from entering any casino facility in this state.

(C) This chapter does not preclude a casino operator from ejecting any individual from its casino facility for any lawful reason. The casino operator may seek to have the commission place an individual the casino operator has ejected on the involuntary exclusion list.
