

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4101:9-4-18 Construction by public authority with its own employees.

Effective: November 1, 2024

A public authority that constructs a publicimprovement project with its own employees shall pay not less than theprevailing rate of wages, unless the public authority's employeesperforming the work are full-time employees that have completed theirprobationary period in the classified service of the public authority and areperforming work consistent with the classified nature of theiremployment.
