

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4117-17-04 Investigation.

Effective: May 18, 1987

Upon request of any person, the board may investigate or hold a hearing regarding circumstances of imposition of a trusteeship over a subordinate employee organization. If the trusteeship does not meet the requirements of this chapter and the applicable constitution or bylaws, the board may order compliance or may dissolve the trust. Failure to comply with such an order may result in the imposition of penalties set forth in division (E) of section 4117.19 of the Revised Code.
