

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4123-17-22 Traveling expense.

Effective: July 1, 1993

---

Where traveling salesmen or other employees, who travel in the course of their employment, are required to pay their traveling expenses out of their remuneration, the employer, in submitting payroll reports of the earnings of such employees, may deduct from the remuneration an amount representing actual traveling expenses, not exceeding, however, an amount equal to one-third of the remuneration, provided said employer maintains complete detailed records disclosing said expenditures.
