

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4123-17-36 Administrative cost contribution.

Effective: July 1, 2024

(A) The administrator of workers' compensation, with the advice and consent of the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors, has authority to calculate contributions for administrative costs attributable to the activities of the industrial commission, the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors, and the bureau of workers' compensation pursuant to sections 4121.121, 4123.341, and 4123.342 of the Revised Code. The administrator hereby sets administrative cost contributions for public employer state agencies as indicated in paragraph (D) of this rule for the bureau of workers' compensation and the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors. Based upon the information provided to the administrator by the industrial commission pursuant to section 4123.342 of the Revised Code, the administrator, with the approval of the chairperson of the industrial commission, hereby sets administrative cost contributions for public employer state agencies as indicated in paragraph (E) of this rule for the industrial commission.

(B) The administrative cost contributions due for each employer, except for self-insuring employers, are set in accordance with section 4123.341 of the Revised Code.

(C) Whenever administrative cost contributions established under this rule and rule 4123-17-32 of the Administrative Code prove inadequate or excessive, the same may be adjusted at any time during the biennial period.

(D) Administrative cost contributions for the bureau of workers' compensation and bureau of workers' compensation board of directors for public employer state agencies are 17.85 per cent of premium effective July 1, 2024.

(E) Administrative cost contributions for the industrial commission for public employer state agencies are 8.03 per cent of premium effective July 1, 2024.
