

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4141-35-05 Charges on combined wage credit claims paid by Ohio.

Effective: December 28, 2017

---

When the department is the paying agency for benefits payable under a combined wage credit claim, each payment of benefits shall be prorated to the agencies which have furnished wage credits used to qualify the claimant in the same proportions that the wage credits furnished by such agencies bear to the total wage credits used. Benefits prorated to the department shall be charged against the accounts of employers as prescribed in section 4141.24 of the Revised Code.
