

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4703-3-08 Professional responsibility.

Effective: December 26, 2006

A registered architect or architectural firm shall, when providing professional design services to a public authority, have and maintain professional liability insurance or other assurance of financial responsibility as may be required by the public authority.
