

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4757-13-10 Requirement for a temporary counselor license.

Effective: March 21, 2022

(A) An applicant who wishes to obtain a temporary license shall submit a completed licensure application, as prescribed by the board.

(B) The temporary application shall be submitted with the required fee per paragraph (D) of rule 4757-1-05 of the Administrative Code.

(C) The application shall be reviewed by a staff member of the board, to determine whether the applicant appears to have the appropriate degrees and/or experience to meet the requirements for the actual license they seek.

(D) If staff determines that the applicant meets the requirements for the license for which they are applying, a temporary license will be issued to applicant. This temporary license will allow the applicant to work legally in Ohio during the period during which it is in effect.

(E) The applicant shall have passed the examination for the license which they seek prior to the issuance of the temporary license.

(F) A temporary license may be issued by the board for a period not to exceed ninety days to an otherwise qualified applicant who has completed the educational requirements for licensure but is awaiting the actual awarding of the degree. A temporary license may be renewed one time for a period not to exceed ninety days.

(1) That they have met all the academic requirements for the degree as confirmed by the academic program, and

(2) When the degree will be/was conferred.

(G) A temporary license is valid from the date of issuance until the earliest of one of the following:

- (1) The date the applicant's license is issued under section 4757.22 or 4757.23 of the Revised Code;
- (2) Ninety days after the temporary license has been issued;
- (3) The date the applicant withdraws their application for licensure;
