

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4901-1-35 Applications for rehearing.

Effective: April 11, 2024

(A) Any party or any affected person, firm, or corporation may file an application for rehearing, within thirty days after the issuance of a commission order, in the form and manner and under the circumstances set forth in section 4903.10 of the Revised Code. An application for rehearing must set forth, in numbered or lettered paragraphs, the specific ground or grounds upon which the applicant considers the commission order to be unreasonable or unlawful. An application for rehearing must be accompanied by a memorandum in support, which sets forth an explanation of the basis for each ground for rehearing identified in the application for rehearing and which shall be filed no later than the application for rehearing.

(B) Any party may file a memorandum contra within ten days after the filing of an application for rehearing.

(C) As provided in section 4903.10 of the Revised Code, all applications for rehearing must be filed within thirty days after an order has been journalized by the secretary of the commission, or, in the case of an application that is subject to automatic approval under the commission's procedures, an application for rehearing must be filed within thirty days after the date on which the automatic timeframe has expired, unless the application has been suspended by the commission.

(D) A party or any affected person, firm, or corporation may only file one application for rehearing to a commission order within thirty days following the entry of the order upon the journal of the commission.
