

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4901:1-43-03 Project information and approval process.

Effective: May 28, 2026

- (A) Pursuant to division (A) of section 4929.163 of the Revised Code, a natural gas company may file, prior to beginning construction, for approval of an economic development project through an economic development project notice with the commission's docketing division. This notice may contain any information the commission deems relevant, for example, any or all of the following:
- (1) The name and location of the project.
 - (2) A background of the subject company of the economic development project.
 - (3) The level of total investment and capital expenditure by the subject company and the economic development impact. This description shall contain the following information:
 - (a) Anticipated number of new jobs created and jobs retained by the project.
 - (b) Description of the community served and the benefits to that community.
 - (4) To the maximum extent practicable, a description of other potential locations that may compete with the proposed location, including the type, location, and time frame of potentially competing projects.
 - (5) A description of how the infrastructure development costs are projected to generate a return less than the most recently authorized return on equity.
- (B) Following its review of the information set forth in paragraph (A) of this rule, and any other information consistent with section 4929.163 of the Revised Code, the commission may approve a project if the infrastructure development costs for the project are projected to generate a return on the company's investment that is less than the most recently authorized return on equity.
- (C) A notice filed pursuant to division (A) of section 4929.163 of the Revised Code is deemed automatically approved on the thirtieth day after the date of the notice filing unless the notice filing is suspended by the commission for good cause shown. If the notice filing is suspended, the commission will approve, deny, modify, or hold a hearing on the notice filing not later than forty-five days after the date that the suspension begins.
