

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4901:2-23-06 Examinations.

Effective: July 10, 2023

(A) Authorized employees of the commission's transportation department may examine any records, documents, or property of transportation network companies for the purpose of assessing its compliance with the provisions of sections 4925.03 to 4925.08 of the Revised Code and with the rules adopted under this chapter.

(B) Transportation network companies should provide authorized employees of the commission's transportation department with reasonably expeditious access to employees, records, documents, or property as necessary to conduct an examination pursuant to paragraph (A) of this rule. Any information sought to be reviewed by the commission is to be accessible and available for review in Ohio, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(C) Each transportation network company shall maintain all records and data for two years after the date the services are provided that are sufficient to demonstrate compliance with the requirements of sections 4925.03 to 4925.08 of the Revised Code, rules adopted under this chapter, and support any investigation of customer complaints.
