

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4901:7-1-01 Meetings.

Effective: June 28, 2007

(A) This chapter is adopted in compliance with, and under the authority of division (B) of section 4901.021 and division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code.

(B) All meetings of the nominating council at which official action is taken and deliberation upon official business is conducted shall be opened to the public. For the purpose of this rule, the term "meeting" shall mean any prearranged discussion of the public business of the nominating council by a majority of its members. All resolutions, rules, or formal action of any kind shall be adopted in an open meeting of the nominating council. Consistent with division (C) of section 4901.021 of the Revised Code, six members, or their alternates, constitute a quorum.

(C) The nominating council may hold an executive session for the sole purpose of the consideration of a matter contained in division (G) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. Such executive session may be held only at a meeting for which notice has been given in accordance with rule 4901:7-1-03 of the Administrative Code, and only after a majority of a quorum of the nominating council determines, by a roll call vote, to hold such a session.

(D) Meetings of the nominating council may be recessed for up to three business days.
