

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 5122-31-07 Maximum resident and household capacity.

Effective: August 10, 2026

- (A) The department is to determine the maximum number of residents and maximum number of household members for which each recovery housing residence will be certified and state the maximum number on the certification issued to the residence.
- (B) The maximum number of residents and household members for which a recovery housing residence is certified is to be based on the standards in rule 5122-31-12 of the Administrative Code.
- (C) A recovery housing residence is to notify the department's bureau of licensure and certification, in writing, prior to allowing any additional individuals to reside in the residence for more than forty-eight hours if the residence will exceed the maximum number of household members identified on the certification. Additional individuals may reside in a residence for no longer than fourteen days in a year, except that this limitation does not apply to any dependent child or adolescent of a resident when the resident has temporary visitation rights of their child or adolescent.
