

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 5180:3-7-02 Protective supervision by PCSAs.

Effective: December 15, 2025

(A) What are some examples of reasonable restrictions that a public children services agency (PCSA) might request the court to impose when filing a complaint for an order of protective supervision?

The PCSA is to request the court impose reasonable restrictions on the child and their parent, guardian, custodian, or any other person, as needed. Reasonable restrictions include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Ordering a parent, guardian, or custodian to vacate the child's home, within forty-eight hours after the issuance of the order, either indefinitely or for a specified period.
- (2) Ordering a parent, guardian, or custodian to prevent a specific individual from having contact with the child.
- (3) Restricting or regulating the actions of any individual whose behavior is not in the best interest of the child.

(B) What are the PCSA's responsibilities for each child under an order of protective supervision?

- (1) The PCSA is to prepare and maintain the "Family Case Plan" pursuant to section 2151.412 of the Revised Code and rule 5180:2-38-05 of the Administrative Code.
- (2) The PCSA is to comply with rule 5180:2-40-02 of the Administrative Code when providing supportive services.
- (3) The PCSA is to complete the "Case Review", pursuant to rule 5180:2-38-09 of the Administrative Code.

(4) The PCSA is to complete the "Semiannual Administrative Review" (SAR) pursuant section 2151.416 of the Revised Code and rule 5180:2-38-10 of the Administrative Code.

(5) The PCSA is to act in accordance with section 2151.353 of the Revised Code regarding terminating or extending time for the order of protective supervision.
