

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901:1-18-07 Goats.

Effective: May 23, 2024

(A) Goats moved within Ohio for exhibition:

(1) The animal presented for exhibition must show no clinical signs or evidence of an infectious or contagious disease.

(2) All sexually intact animals and any wether eighteen months of age and older must be identified with an official identification as defined in rule 901:1-13-04 of the Administrative Code.

(B) Goats imported into Ohio for exhibition must comply with rule 901:1-17-06 of the Administrative Code.
