

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901:10-1-04 Fees.

Effective: January 1, 2025

(A) Applicants for permits and certifications shall pay non-refundable fees to the department of agriculture for each such issuance as provided by this rule and rule 901:10-1-02 of the Administrative Code.

(B) As required in rule 901:10-1-06 of the Administrative Code, the livestock manager certificate will be assessed a fee of fifty dollars. Fees are assessed upon application for a certificate or renewal of certificate. A late charge of thirty dollars shall be assessed for a certificate expired more than ten days.

(C) The permit to install shall be submitted simultaneously with the permit to operate with applicable fees for each permit.

(D) An application for the permit to install will be assessed a fee of three thousand dollars.

(E) An application for the permit to operate, filed independently or with a permit to install, will be assessed a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars. The renewal fee for the permit to operate will be one thousand five hundred dollars.

(F) An application for a general permit to operate will be assessed a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars. The renewal fee for the general permit to operate is one thousand five hundred dollars.

(G) A request for a major operational change shall be assessed a fee of five hundred dollars.

(H) Permit transfers are subject to a fee of five hundred dollars.

(I) Modifications to permits are subject to a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars.

(J) The fees assessed under this rule shall be collected upon submission of the application for permit as required by rule 901:10-1-02 of the Administrative Code or certificates or renewals or upon application for permit transfer or permit modification.

(K) The director may review the fees prescribed in paragraphs (B) to (J) of this rule periodically. If necessary to revise fees, the director shall compile revised fee schedules and shall make the revised schedules available to persons required to pay the fees and to the public.

(L) If fees do not accompany the application as set forth in paragraphs (B) to (J) of this rule, the application will be deemed incomplete. The applicant will be contacted with notice as to what fees are applicable and the application will not be processed until the fees are paid.
