Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901:10-6-02 Contents of public notices.

Effective: November 1, 2026

(A) Applicability. This rule applies to public notices for the issuance of or proposed actions to deny, modify, revoke and reissue, or terminate permits to install and permits to operate. This rule also applies to the issuance of final orders. Public notices shall include the following information:

(1) The name, address, telephone number, and electronic mail address of the office of the Ohio department of agriculture where department files and records pertaining to the proposed action or issuance are located and may be inspected and copied and instructions for persons desiring to obtain additional information, including the mailing lists provided for in rule 901:10-6-06 of the Administrative Code.

(2) The name and address of the owner and operator.

(3) A brief description of the concentrated animal feeding facility.

(4) The location of the facility.

(5) A concise statement of the draft permit or the proposed action.

(6) A statement:

(a) That any interested person may submit a written comment on the draft permit or proposed action and may request a public meeting within thirty days of appearance of public notice in a newspaper in the affected county. A request for a public meeting shall be in writing and state the nature of the issues proposed to be raised in the public meeting;

(b) That any person has a right to provide a written or oral statement for the record at the public meeting if a meeting is scheduled; and

(c) That one public meeting shall be held prior to issuance of any final permit decision when required by paragraph (C) of rule 901:10-6-04 and may be held where authorized by paragraph (B) of rule 901:10-6-04 of the Administrative Code.
