

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 901:12-5-01 Definitions.

Effective: September 29, 2011

The administrative rules in Chapter 901:12-5 of the Administrative Code apply exclusively to veal as defined in section 904.01 of the Revised Code and rule 901:12-5-01 of the Administrative Code.

As used in Chapter 901:12-5 of the Administrative Code, unless otherwise specified,

Veal is a young bovine animal sold for slaughter at or under seven hundred fifty pounds, and raised for the purpose of veal meat production including:

- (A) "Special fed veal" is fed a milk-based liquid diet throughout the feeding period;
  - (B) "Grain fed veal" is raised on a feed program beginning with a milk-based liquid diet and may include hay, pasture or other processed feeds; and,
  - (C) "Bob veal" is fed a milk-based liquid diet and generally marketed at less than three weeks old and weighing less than one hundred fifty pounds.
