

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 901:3-12-06 Voluntary registration.

Effective: August 15, 2024

(A) Farms that are exempt from the rules of this chapter may request to be voluntarily regulated by the Ohio department of agriculture.

(1) Farms who request to be voluntarily regulated shall annually register with the Ohio department of agriculture.

(2) The annual registration is from the first day of March to the last day of February annually.

(3) All interested farms must renew annually in order to be voluntarily regulated.

(4) Once registered farms may not withdraw their voluntary registration unless specifically permitted by the Ohio department of agriculture.

(B) Pursuant to rule 901:3-12-01 of the Administrative Code all voluntary registered farms shall be subject to the laws and rules applicable to very small businesses as defined in 21 C.F.R. 112.3.
