

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901:3-4-10 Dispute mediation procedure.

Effective: February 1, 2001

---

A licensor or license holder may request mediation by the Ohio department of agriculture to resolve a dispute regarding the application of Chapter 3717. of the Revised Code, agency-level 3717 of the Administrative Code, or this chapter pertaining to retail food establishments. The request shall be in writing and contain a detailed description of the dispute including any applicable supporting documentation. The Ohio department of agriculture shall investigate the case and the findings transmitted to all affected entities. A request for mediation does not affect the right of any party to seek any other remedy available by law.
