

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 901:3-6-07 Right of entry.

Effective: March 20, 2017

A person or government entity operating a farm market, a farm product auction, a farmers' market, or a stand at a farmers' market, shall permit the director to inspect, for the purpose of determining compliance with this chapter or investigating a complaint. On request of the director, the operator of the farm market, a farm product auction, a farmers' market, or a stand at a farmers' market, shall permit the director to examine the operator's records to obtain information about the purchase, receipt, or use of food, supplies, and equipment.
