

Ohio Revised Code

Section 103.12 Ohio legislative service commission committees.

Effective: November 11, 1965

Legislation: Senate Bill 328 - 106th General Assembly

The Ohio legislative service commission may appoint committees consisting of members of the general assembly and such citizens having special knowledge on a particular subject as the commission may determine, to study and report on assigned subjects. At least one member of the commission shall be a member of each committee.

No committee study or report shall be published by the commission until such study or report has been approved for publication by a majority of the committee making the study or report.
