Ohio Revised Code

Section 107.10 Records to be kept in governor's office.

Effective: June 6, 2001
Legislation: House Bill 94 - 124th General Assembly

The following records shall be kept in the governor's office:

(A) A register of every bill passed by the general assembly that has been presented to the governor, in which is entered the number of the bill, the date the bill was presented to the governor, and the action taken on it by the governor and the date of the action;

(B) An appointment record in which is entered the name of each person appointed to an office by the governor, except commissioners, the office to which appointed, the date of the appointment, the date of the commission, the date of the beginning and expiration of the term, and the result and date of action by the senate, if required;

(C) A record of commissioners in which is entered the name, post-office address, the state, territory, or county where the appointee resides, the date of commission, and the beginning and expiration of term of each commissioner appointed;

(D) A record of requisitions in which is entered both of the following:

(1) An abstract of each application for a requisition, showing date, by whom made, the name of the alleged fugitive, the offense charged, upon the executive authority of what state, territory, or country the requisition is made, and whether granted or refused;

(2) An abstract of requisition received, showing date of receipt, from what state or territory issued, the name of the alleged fugitive, the offense charged, whether a warrant was issued or refused, and if issued, to the sheriff of what county, or the reason for refusing to issue a warrant.

(E) A pardon record in which is entered the date of each application for pardon, reprieve, or commutation, the name of the convict, of what crime, in what county, and at what term of court the convict was convicted, the sentence of the court, the action of the governor, the reason for that action, and the date of that action.
