

Ohio Revised Code Section 117.461 Comment period.

Effective: April 5, 2011

Legislation: Senate Bill 4 - 129th General Assembly

Every state agency audited pursuant to section 117.46 of the Revised Code shall accept comments regarding the performance audit from interested parties. The comment period shall begin on the day following the release date of the audit and shall conclude at the end of the fourteenth day following the release date. The agency shall make all comments available to the public on the twenty-first day following the release date of the audit. The agency shall determine how to accept comments under this section.
