

Ohio Revised Code

Section 121.211 Retention and disposition of records.

Effective: July 1, 1985

Legislation: House Bill 238 - 116th General Assembly

Records in the custody of each agency shall be retained for time periods in accordance with law establishing specific retention periods, and in accordance with retention periods or disposition instructions established by the state records administration.
