

Ohio Revised Code

Section 124.02 Director of administrative services and state personnel board of review to serve as state civil service commission.

Effective: September 30, 2025

Legislation: House Bill 96

---

The director of administrative services and the state personnel board of review shall exercise all functions, powers, and duties that, on or before January 1, 1959, were by law actually devolved upon, vested in, and imposed upon the state civil service commission and the offices of commissioners and members and upon their employees, agents, and representatives.

---