

Ohio Revised Code

Section 125.90 Administrative rules.

Effective: October 29, 1995

Legislation: Senate Bill 162 - 121st General Assembly

For the purpose of executing its authority, under sections 125.84 to 125.90 of the Revised Code, and in order to continuously conform with current federal property disposal acts and applicable rules of federal departments, agencies, boards, and commissions, the department of administrative services, notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, may adopt, amend, or rescind rules and orders and prescribe requirements and standards deemed necessary and suitable for the administration of sections 125.84 to 125.90 of the Revised Code, that are not inconsistent with the applicable parts of the rules issued under section 5502.25 of the Revised Code. Such department rules as are adopted shall become effective upon approval by the governor and being filed in the office of the secretary of state.

All courts shall take judicial notice of rules adopted pursuant to sections 125.84 to 125.90 of the Revised Code. State or local plans, ordinances, resolutions, rules, or orders adopted pursuant to sections 125.84 to 125.90 of the Revised Code may be read in evidence, at any time, from a copy thereof, if there is contained on the same page or in the same publication in which such copy is contained, a printed certificate of the secretary of state or local official that such copy is a correct transcript of the text of the original.
