

Ohio Revised Code

Section 147.12 Acts done by notary public after term valid.

Effective: June 30, 2005

Legislation: House Bill 66 - 126th General Assembly

An official act done by a notary public after the expiration of the notary public's term of office or after the notary public resigns the notary public's commission is as valid as if done during the notary public's term of office.
