

Ohio Revised Code

Section 184.12 Collaboration on research and development projects.

Effective: January 4, 2006

Legislation: Senate Bill 236 - 126th General Assembly

---

Individuals, Ohio businesses and industries, local public entities and agencies, public and private education institutions, including state-supported and state-assisted institutions of higher education, the state and state agencies, and research organizations and institutions may collaborate on research and development projects.

---