

Ohio Revised Code Section 188.01 Definitions.

Effective: May 17, 2021

Legislation: House Bill 2 - 134th General Assembly

As used in sections 188.01 to 188.23 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Broadband service" means any wholesale or retail service that consists of, or includes the provision of, connectivity to a high-speed, high-capacity transmission medium that can carry signals from or to multiple sources and that either provides access to the internet or provides computer processing, information storage, information content or protocol conversion, including any service applications or information service provided over such high-speed access service. "Broadband service" includes video service, voice over internet protocol service, and internet protocol-enabled services.

(B) "Electric cooperative" has the same meaning as in section 4928.01 of the Revised Code.

(C) "Internet protocol-enabled services" and "voice over internet protocol service" have the same meanings as in section 4927.01 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Servient estate" means the land burdened by an easement.

(E) "Video programming" means any programming generally considered comparable to programming provided by a television broadcast station.

(F) "Video service" means video programming services without regard to delivery technology, including internet protocol technology and video programming provided as a part of a service that enables users to access content, information, electronic mail, or other services offered over the public internet.
