

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1302.81 Person in the position of a seller - UCC 2-707.

Effective: July 1, 1962

Legislation: Senate Bill 5 - 104th General Assembly

(A) A "person in the position of a seller" includes as against a principal an agent who has paid or become responsible for the price of goods on behalf of his principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller.

(B) A person in the position of a seller may withhold or stop delivery as provided in section 1302.79 of the Revised Code and resell as provided in section 1302.80 of the Revised Code, and recover incidental damages as provided in section 1302.84 of the Revised Code.
