

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1309.519 Numbering, maintaining, and indexing records - communicating information provided in records - UCC 9-519.

Effective: July 1, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 74 - 124th General Assembly

(A) For each record filed in a filing office, the filing office shall:

- (1) Assign an unique number to the filed record;
- (2) Create a record that bears the number assigned to the filed record and the date and time of filing;
- (3) Maintain the filed record for public inspection; and
- (4) Index the filed record in accordance with divisions (C), (D), and (E) of this section.

(B) A file number assigned after January 1, 2002, must include a digit that:

- (1) Is mathematically derived from or related to the other digits of the file number; and
- (2) Aids the filing office in determining whether a number communicated as the file number includes a single-digit or transpositional error.

(C) Except as provided in divisions (D) and (E) of this section, the filing office shall:

- (1) Index an initial financing statement according to the name of the debtor and index all filed records relating to the initial financing statement in a manner that associates with one another an initial financing statement and all filed records relating to the initial financing statement; and
- (2) Index a record that provides a name of a debtor that previously was not provided in the financing statement to which the record relates also according to the name that previously was not provided.

(D) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, it must be filed for record and the filing office shall index it:

(1) Under the names of the debtor and of each owner of record shown on the financing statement as if they were the mortgagors under a mortgage of the real property described; and

(2) To the extent that the laws of this state provide for indexing of records of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee under the mortgage, or, if indexing is by description, as if the financing statement were a record of a mortgage of the real property described.

(E) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index an assignment filed under division (A) of section 1309.514 of the Revised Code or an amendment filed under division (B) of that section:

(1) Under the name of the assignor as grantor; and

(2) To the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing a record of the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, under the name of the assignee.

(F) The filing office shall maintain a capability:

(1) To retrieve a record by the name of the debtor and:

(a) If the filing office is described in division (A)(1) of section 1309.501 of the Revised Code, by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates and the date and time that the record was filed;

(b) If the filing office is described in division (A)(2) of section 1309.501 of the Revised Code, by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates; and

(2) To associate and retrieve with one another an initial financing statement and each filed record relating to the initial financing statement.
