

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1321.03 Application for license - fee.

Effective: September 26, 1996

Legislation: Senate Bill 293 - 121st General Assembly

Application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the division of financial institutions, and shall contain the name and address of the applicant, and, if the applicant is a partnership or association, of every member thereof, and, if a corporation, of each officer and director thereof; also the approximate location where the business is to be conducted and such further relevant information as the division requires. At the time of making such application, the applicant shall pay to the division a license fee as determined by the superintendent of financial institutions pursuant to section 1321.20 of the Revised Code and a nonrefundable investigation fee of two hundred dollars. No license fee or any portion thereof shall be refunded after a license has been issued.
