

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1321.665 Preservation of books and records.

Effective: September 12, 2017

Legislation: Senate Bill 24 - 132nd General Assembly

Before ceasing to conduct or discontinuing business as a licensee, the licensee shall arrange for and be responsible for the preservation of the books and records required to be maintained and preserved under sections 1321.62 to 1321.702 of the Revised Code and shall notify the division of financial institutions in writing of the exact address where the books and records will be maintained during the required period.
