

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1345.65 Contract contents.

Effective: March 28, 1985

Legislation: House Bill 385 - 115th General Assembly

Every contract for invention development services shall set forth in boldface type of not less than ten-point size, or in capital letters of a size not less than that used in a standard office typewriter, both of the following:

- (A) The terms and conditions of payment and contract revocation rights required by section 1345.62 of the Revised Code.

 - (B) The name and principal place of business in Ohio of the invention developer. In the event that a substantial portion of the contractual services are to be performed outside of the state of Ohio, the name and address of the invention developer who will perform those services.
-