

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1705.02 [Repealed Effective 2/11/2022 - See R.C. 1706.83] Purposes of company - assistance in national defense.

Effective: June 20, 2008

Legislation: House Bill 160

A limited liability company may be formed for any purpose or purposes for which individuals lawfully may associate themselves, including for any profit or nonprofit purpose, except that, if the Revised Code contains special provisions for the formation of any designated type of corporation other than a professional association, a limited liability company shall not be formed for the purpose or purposes for which that type of corporation may be formed. At the request or direction of the government of the United States or any agency of that government, a limited liability company may transact any lawful business in aid of the national defense or in the prosecution of any war in which the United States is engaged.
