

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1783.02 Name of firm.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

"Limited" shall be the last word of the name of every limited partnership association formed under sections 1783.01 to 1783.12, inclusive, of the Revised Code. Every such association must paint or affix, and keep painted or affixed, its name on the outside of every office or place in which its business is carried on, in a conspicuous position and in letters easily legible, and must have its full name mentioned in legible characters in all notices, advertisements, and other of its official publications, and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, checks, orders for money, bills of lading, invoices, receipts, letters, and other writings used in the transaction of its business.

The omission of "limited," in the use of the name of the association, shall render every person participating in such omission, or knowingly acquiescing therein, liable for any indebtedness or liabilities arising therefrom.
