

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2129.16 Property not to be sold.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: Senate Bill 361 - 100th General Assembly

An ancillary administrator shall not sell property of a nonresident decedent if the domiciliary administrator or executor, or any other person having an interest in the estate, within thirty days after the forwarding of the certificate of assets and liabilities required by section 2129.15 of the Revised Code pays to the ancillary administrator a sum sufficient to pay all expenses of administration, public rates and charges, and creditors' claims filed in the state, or secures the payment of such sum to the satisfaction of the probate court. The domiciliary administrator or executor, or any other person having an interest in the estate, may likewise prevent the sale of any part of such property by paying, or securing to the satisfaction of the court the payment of, the appraised value of the property withheld from sale.
