

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2152.04 Confining delinquent child for purposes of preparing social history.

Effective: January 1, 2002

Legislation: Senate Bill 179 - 123rd General Assembly

A child who is alleged to be, or who is adjudicated, a delinquent child may be confined in a place of juvenile detention provided under section 2152.41 of the Revised Code for a period not to exceed ninety days, during which time a social history may be prepared to include court record, family history, personal history, school and attendance records, and any other pertinent studies and material that will be of assistance to the juvenile court in its disposition of the charges against that alleged or adjudicated delinquent child.
