In any county in which a daily law journal is printed, the judges of the courts of record, other than the court of appeals, shall jointly designate such daily law journal as the journal in which shall be published all calendars of the courts of record in such county, which calendars shall contain the numbers and titles of causes, and names of attorneys appearing in the causes, together with the motion dockets and such particulars and notices respecting causes, as may be specified by the judges, and each notice required to be published by any of those judges.

In all cases, proceedings, administrations of estates, assignments, and matters pending in any of the courts of record of the counties in which legal notices or advertisements are required to be published, the law journal shall, once a week and on the same day of the week, publish an abstract of each such legal advertisement, but the jurisdiction over, or irregularity of, a proceeding, trial, or judgment shall not be affected by anything in the abstract of legal advertising.

For the publication of such calendars, motion dockets, and notices, the fees for which are not fixed by law, the publisher of the paper shall receive a sum to be fixed by the judges for each case brought, to be paid in advance by the party filing the petition, transcripts for appeal, or lien, unless the party is determined by the court to qualify as an indigent litigant as set forth in section 2323.311 of the Revised Code, to be taxed in the costs and collected as other costs. For the publication of abstracts of legal advertising the publisher shall receive a sum to be fixed by the judges for each case, proceeding, or matter, in which such advertising is had, to be taxed and collected as a part of the costs of the case, proceeding, or matter.
