

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2715.39 Repossession of attached property.

Effective: August 26, 1982

Legislation: House Bill 254 - 114th General Assembly

For the purpose of selling it, the court may order the levying officer to repossess himself of attached property which has passed out of his hands without having been sold or converted into money. Under such order, the officer shall have the same power to take the property as under an order of attachment.
